Grand Skymark is a split four and six storey luxury rental building located centrally in Abbotsford.

At the time of construction, Abbotsford had the lowest rental vacancy rate in Canada. Grand Skymark helps relieve extreme rental demand by offering housing for a diverse range of needs. It contains studio, one-bedroom, two-bedroom, and three-bedroom units.

For aesthetics and durability, the exterior design includes cementitious cladding and cultured stone comprise the main exterior materials. Its timeless colour palette and stained wood detailing create a warm, inviting character that welcome residents home.
