Station One Architects was commissioned to design the Performing Arts Centre in Kamloops. Dramatic, curvilinear, flowing and transparent, the design is meant to reflect the music, dance, theatrical performances and art exhibitions contained within and serve as an artistic HUB for the performing arts in the community of Kamloops. It will span 103,000 sq ft, house 3 theatres seating 1200, 450, & 135, a cafe & outdoor cafe area, rehearsal halls, meeting spaces & 20,000 sq ft of office space.
